Today's dealers have more opportunities and resources to maximizing profits than ever before – tools earlier generations never dreamed of. We will share how to leverage all of them. Learn the steps that lead to success and dominate your competition.

Come to the 2009 Synergy Session workshops and get the blueprints to success — effective leadership and philosophies, building the right team, taking advantage of free opportunities, organizing your time and utilizing the latest technology. We're not there to sell; we're there to teach you how to bounce back and sell more cars more often.
